

STOLEN TIME

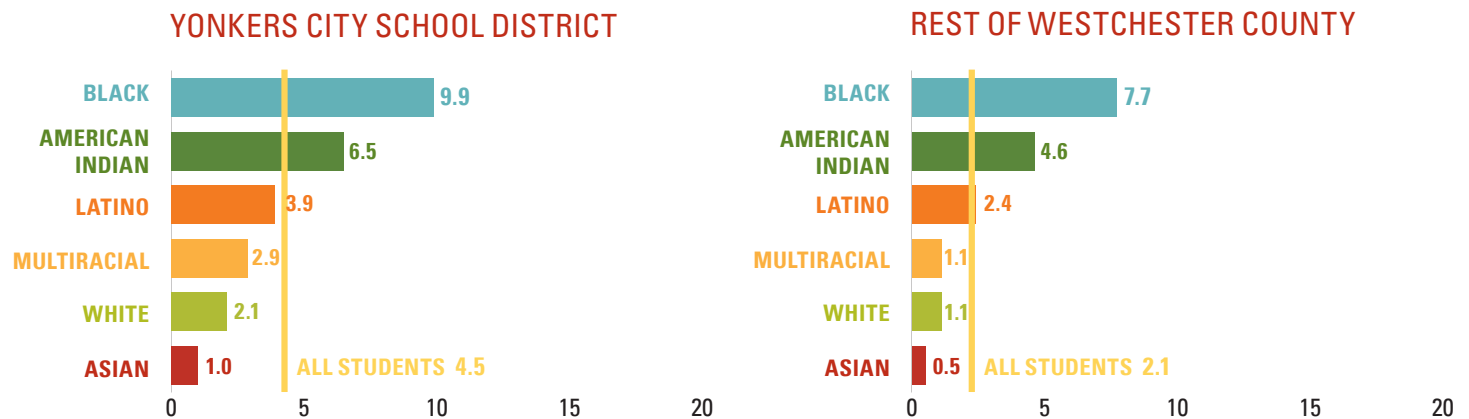

NEW YORK STATE'S SUSPENSION CRISIS

WESTCHESTER COUNTY

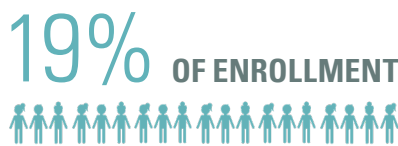

The New York Equity Coalition finds a statewide crisis in the use of suspensions to exclude Black students from classroom instruction. Find out more at www.EquityInEdNY.org.

PERCENT OF STUDENTS WITH AT LEAST ONE OUT-OF-SCHOOL SUSPENSION (2016-17)

SCHOOLS DISPROPORTIONATELY SUSPENDED BLACK STUDENTS IN 2016-17

In the Yonkers City School District, Black students represented...

In the rest of Westchester County, Black students represented...

THE IMPACT ON BLACK FEMALE AND BLACK MALE STUDENTS

At the elementary/middle school level, schools in the rest of Westchester County were 11.7X more likely to suspend Black female students than White female students.

At the high school level, schools in the rest of Westchester County were 13.4X more likely to suspend Black female students than White female students.

At the elementary/middle school level, schools in the Yonkers City School District suspended 9.1 percent of Black male students, which is a greater rate than any other group of students.

At the high school level, schools in the Yonkers City School District suspended 19.3 percent of Black male students, which is a greater rate than any other group of students.

Source: New York State Education Department. Unpublished 2016-17 data. Analysis conducted by The Education Trust—New York.