The New York Equity Coalition finds a statewide crisis in the use of suspensions to exclude Black students from classroom instruction. Find out more at www.EquityInEdNY.org.

PERCENT OF STUDENTS WITH AT LEAST ONE OUT-OF-SCHOOL SUSPENSION (2016-17)

In the Yonkers City School District, Black students represented...
19% of enrollment
41% of all students who were suspended at least once

In the rest of Westchester County, Black students represented...
11% of enrollment
40% of all students who were suspended at least once

THE IMPACT ON BLACK FEMALE AND BLACK MALE STUDENTS

At the elementary/middle school level, schools in the rest of Westchester County were 11.7X more likely to suspend Black female students than White female students.

At the elementary/middle school level, schools in the Yonkers City School District suspended 9.1 percent of Black male students, which is a greater rate than any other group of students.

At the high school level, schools in the rest of Westchester County were 13.4X more likely to suspend Black female students than White female students.

At the high school level, schools in the Yonkers City School District suspended 19.3 percent of Black male students, which is a greater rate than any other group of students.